MKHMA's BLACK CARPET AFFAIR TO BE HELD AT THE VALLEY OF THE WAVES

Rustenburg – The 5th annual Mzansi Kwaito and House Music Awards will be hosted on the 31st of December 2020 and will be broadcast live from the marvelous Valley of The Waves in Sun City, at 19:30. The alluring Queen of Bling, Khanyi Mbau, will be hosting the awards alongside Gomora's very own, GP MaOrange, on a festive night that celebrates greatness within the Kwaito and House fraternity.

The award ceremony, which was set to take place during Women's Month in August, encountered several funding issues in hosting the awards for this year. Due to the Covid-19 Regulations, the main event will not have any attendees this year but will dazzle virtual audiences watching the masterpiece event live. "We appreciate the assistance of the Department of Arts and Culture in the North West, as well as Sun City for coming on board and making these awards a reality once again” Says MKHMA’s Communications Officer, Mondli Mlauza. In the fight against gender-based violence on women and children, MKHMA will be celebrating women in this year’s edition and will have an exceptional line-up dominated by popular female performers on stage. In memoriam of the late Godmother of Kwaito music, MKHMA will be celebrating the legacy of Nomasonto Mshoza Maswanganyi, throughout the 5th annual Mzansi Kwaito and House Music Awards. “I was deeply hurt and disturbed by the sudden passing of the Queen of Kwaito, Mshoza” Says MKHMA Founder and CEO, Mrs Perfecta Malinga. “As one of the leading female musicians in this male dominated industry, Mshoza was set to perform at the main event, but now she is gone. We had to change the entire program because of her passing, and make sure we pay homage to her on the 31st of this month. She will forever be missed and may her soul rest in peace.”

The Mzansi Kwaito and House Music Awards are about recognizing, celebrating, and connecting Kwaito and House artists who are constantly working hard to craft great music, individuals who have the capacity for achievement and success, and who contribute in an inspirational way, to the future of South African music.

Nominees for the illustrious MKHMA awards were announced earlier this year, and the main event can be viewed on Soweto TV, the MKHMA website, YouTube, and across our various social media platforms.
